Wedding Banns

Dear Parishioners of Holy Rosary,

When the founders of the United States of America declared liberty from the throne in Great Britain 238 years ago, they were prepared to lay down their lives for the good of their families and those living in the colonies at the time. Each year around the Fourth Day of July, I take some time to admire and ponder the nature of freedom that inspired the early leaders of this nation.

A classical understanding of liberty is one that takes into account a person's ability to even choose what is good. To be truly free means to not be held back by selfish desires, sinful ways, bad habits and vices that would otherwise prevent you from doing God's will and what is best for all His children. Each one of us are held back in one way or another by past actions by others against us, misunderstandings about God, and the times that we have chosen to serve ourselves rather than to serve God.

We know that, left to ourselves, being truly free is an impossible task. Our loving and merciful God has not, however, left us without a way out of our mess. As St. Paul implores us today, by our Baptism we have been given life in the Spirit, in which we have the help necessary to be truly free, by living according to God's ways, rather than the ways of the world.

Yet sometimes we still scoff at Jesus' notion of an "easy yoke, and a light burden." I remember having this attitude when it became more apparent that God wanted me to consider the priesthood. I had my own plans, and was laboring under the burden of trying to accomplish my own will, before God's. When I started praying for God to give me the desire to do His will, He came to me and placed his yoke on my shoulders and has guided me down the path of priestly formation. I have experienced the easy yoke and light burden. Not without its share of struggles at times, the joy and freedom that comes in knowing that I ultimately seek God's will prior to my own, is worth more than anything I can accomplish on my own.

No matter what your state in life, consider making this a daily prayer: "Lord, give me the grace to know your will for my life, and the desire to carry it out."

Peace,
Andrew Hoover

Culture of Life at Holy Rosary Parish

The Gospel of Life...

“It is this deep love for every man and woman which has given rise down the centuries to an outstanding history of charity, a history which has brought into being in the Church and society many forms of service to life which evoke admiration from all unbiased observers. Every Christian community, with a renewed sense of responsibility, must continue to write this history through various kinds of pastoral and social activity. To this end, appropriate and effective programs of support for new life must be implemented, with special closeness to mothers who, even without the help of the father, are not afraid to bring their child into the world and to raise it...

Newborn life is also served by centers of assistance and homes or centers where new life receives a welcome. Thanks to the work of such centers, many unmarried mothers and couples in difficulty discover new hope and find assistance and support in overcoming hardship and the fear of accepting a newly conceived life or life which has just come into the world.”
Evangelium Vitae

...in the World.

We just finished collecting contributions, in baby bottles, for Womankind. Your help is more important than we can express & we thank you deeply. But please remember to spread the word – even to a family you may not know very well – that Womankind is there as a source of free help for women & families facing what seems to be an untimely pregnancy. Womankind is nondenominational, nonjudgmental, & simply seeks to offer whatever help is needed: most importantly, they maintain a free clinic for pre-natal care through the 28th week of pregnancy. Please visit their website: www.womankindcleveland.com and jot down their phone number. You never know when YOU might be the one to offer comfort to a pregnant woman who thinks she is alone and without help.
