My Dear Parish Family,

Saint Matthew's Gospel consists of seven sections beginning with the infancy narratives and concluding with the Lord's passion, death and resurrection. We hear from the first section during Advent and Christmas and the last during Lent and Easter. During Ordinary time the readings from Matthew's Gospel focus on the five sections in between. These contain the proclamation of the Kingdom of God, the validation of that coming through the miracles and a more in-depth development of what that Kingdom looks like. During these summer months we take an "orderly" study of each analogy, each parable that Jesus uses to reveal a little bit more about the Kingdom.

Jesus tells us that the Kingdom is like a mustard seed – small and vulnerable at its beginning but surprisingly large and useful when fully established. We hear that the Kingdom is also like some yeast – once thoroughly kneaded into the dough a tiny amount of this essential ingredient permeates the entire loaf. Finally, we hear that the Kingdom can be likened to a man who sows good seed on his soil only to have the enemy also sow weeds among the wheat. Jesus states plainly that He intentionally speaks in the "code" of parables. There is a divine wisdom in this strategy.

Speaking for myself, I am no farmer (outside of our few tomato plants) and I can count on one hand the number of loaves of bread that I have baked, but these parables Jesus uses still provide me with an effective insight into the Kingdom. The masterful use of parables cuts to the heart of the matter. It is a teaching style that is enduring and timeless. The tiny seed of faith that is planted in the heart of one who is humble enough to "listen" will grow to a stature beyond expectations. The invisible, imperceptible yeast (a living organism in and of itself) makes its way into every nook and cranny of our being and expands it by its life. Such is the way the Kingdom takes root and spreads. Once it has taken root, however, it is not always easy to distinguish the wheat from the weeds. The words of the master bid us to be patient – with others and ourselves. The added time until the harvest is God's way of patiently leaving the door open for the possibility of repentance and reconciliation. Make no mistake however, this time is finite. The Day of Judgment will reveal each individual's true nature.

We will hear much more this summer about the Kingdom. If we listen carefully, the Lord Jesus will "will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world."

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

The Gospel of Life...

“The passing of unjust laws often raises difficult problems of conscience for morally upright people with regard to the issue of cooperation, since they have a right to demand not to be forced to take part in morally evil actions. Sometimes the choices which have to be made are difficult; they may require the sacrifice of prestigious professional positions or the relinquishing of reasonable hopes of career advancement. In other cases, it can happen that carrying out certain actions, which are provided for by legislation that overall is unjust, but which in themselves are indifferent, or even positive, can serve to protect human lives under threat. There may be reason to fear, however, that willingness to carry out such actions will not only cause scandal and weaken the necessary opposition to attacks on life, but will gradually lead to further capitulation to a mentality of permissiveness.” Evangelium Vitae

...in the World

In Poland, a renowned pro-life doctor and head of the gynecology and obstetrics department at a major Catholic hospital, has been sacked and fined for refusing to participate in abortion. Dr. Bogdan Chazan was removed from his position as professor and head of gynecology and obstetrics at Holy Family Hospital in Warsaw when he refused to help a woman obtain an abortion for her unborn child who suffered from brain malformations. He was also fined 70,000 zlotys (about $23,000.00). Dr. Chazan, who has been head of ob-gyn services at Holy Family since 2004 and has served in health programs of the World Health Organization and the Council of Europe, the UN and the Polish Ministry of Health, told a television interviewer that he regarded the fine and damage to his career as nothing more than “a ransom for the life of the child,” which he was happy to pay.
