My Dear Parish Family:

I would like to open by asking you a question. Are you as fed up as I am with the seemingly innumerable potholes on our streets? I would bet you are! They pose a hazard to our safety because we have to swerve this way and that, sometimes crossing the yellow center line to avoid them. In addition, they are a threat to our vehicle's well-being. If we encounter one of those deadly axle-bending canyons, it could spell the end of our transportation.

So what is a person to do? Since we do not have the resources of the mayor or the department of streets to fix them, we have no choice but to slow down and weave around these hazards and try to arrive at our destination with ourselves and our vehicles in one piece. For Cleveland and winter, this is standard procedure.

With this fact established, I bet you are wondering where this crazy deacon is taking this story. Well, as I see it, the chuckholes along our roads are like the potholes of temptations that mark each of our lives. We all have them, these hazards that impede our progress along the road of bearing witness to Jesus and His Gospel. Some may be dangerously large, and if we fall victim to them are capable of doing great damage to our souls. During our ordinary day to day we have no choice but to slow down and weave around these hazards and try to arrive at heaven (our destination) with ourselves and our souls (vehicles) intact.

Ah, but during this special season of Lent, we are called to a season of repair, reconciliation and restoration. During this Lenten season, we do have the ability to do something about these hazards to our journey. We can use the tools of the season to clean out those potholes by our fasting, fill them in with the generosity of our almsgiving and smooth them over by our increase in prayer. It is not the exercising of disciplines that heal us, but the graces we receive when we turn our energies away from self-service to selfless service.

It is not easy work, but I know that my road to heaven is in need of just as much repair as most of Cleveland's streets. "Now is the acceptable time." I hope you will join me in this Lenten project. It will make for a smooth ride into a glorious Easter at road's end.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Our prayers for Matthew and Elene, and for ourselves, is that the presence among us of Jesus who is the sum of the Law and the Prophets, will transfigure all our lives with his redeeming grace, bringing us to conversion – a genuine desire to be holy as He is holy.
