Lenten Reminders

Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat for those age 14 and older. Good Friday is a day of both fast and abstinence. Fasting applies to those 18-59 years of age (only one full meal during the day with two lighter meals and no eating between meals). We invite you to one hour of Eucharistic Adoration after the 12:15 p.m. Masses on all Fridays of Lent. All are welcome to pray the Stations of the Cross on all Fridays of Lent at 7:00 p.m. in the hall.

St. Joseph's Table Dinner

The annual parish observance of the Solemnity of Saint Joseph will be delayed due to the renovation of the church. It is rescheduled for Thursday, April 16th with Mass at 6:00 p.m. and the annual dinner to benefit the needy will follow. Please watch future bulletins for more details regarding price and ticket purchase.

IMPORTANT RENOVATION REMINDER

Work on the church building continues!

Just a reminder that all Masses will be held in the hall during the renovation process and we thank you for your patience during this time. Please note that the hall will be unlocked a half hour before all Mass times. We also ask for your patience in the parking lot because of the excessive amount of snow. Please use caution when driving, especially mindful of the pedestrians entering and exiting the school building.

Dear Parish Family,

As we move toward the mid-point of the Lenten Season, our scriptures challenge us to do some “spring cleaning” in our spiritual lives (Let’s keep thinking spring and hopefully the weather will follow!). This is really what Jesus intends in cleansing the temple area, an often misunderstood story of scripture. John relates that Jesus had Zeal for the house of His Father.

Jesus does not drive out the merchants from the temple simply because they are selling and trading (this was legitimate and necessary for the sacrifices to be offered in the temple). Rather, Jesus drives them out because they had profaned the sacredness of the temple by becoming spiritually bankrupt, focusing only on their secular activities to the exclusion of recognizing the presence of God as the purpose of the temple. Jesus was zealous for their souls; He wanted to share with them all that the Father had sent Him to announce. Yet, they continued to look for earthly “signs” from Jesus and failed to recognize that His mission was to begin building the Kingdom of God in their midst. Jesus understood their failure to comprehend this, but did not allow it to deter Him from fulfilling His mission.

So the challenge this presents us is to reflect on what actions, habits, hurts, or anxieties are depleting our spiritual lives? What needs cleaning within our souls? What smudges exist that hinder the light of Christ to shine fully into our hearts? As we reflect on this, we keep in mind that it is equally important to clean out those things within us that keep us from living a life centered in Christ as well as to begin developing good habits and good works that reflect the life of Christ growing within us.

As we enter into the second half of Lent this coming week, it is not a time to coast to the finish line of Easter. Rather it is a time to turn up our intensity in our spiritual lives: spend more time in prayerful reflection about our lives and what needs cleaning; commit to additional acts of charity, kindness, almsgiving, or devotional prayer; fruitfully celebrate the Sacrament of Penance by humbly coming before our Lord and recognizing our need of His grace to accomplish anything in our lives; and acknowledge the truth that ultimately we belong to God—we are His beloved sons and daughters and allow that reality to shape how we live.

Let us continue to pray with and for one another as we continue on our pilgrimage of Lent. We know where we are heading, so let us not be afraid of allowing the Holy Spirit to lead us to our destination.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

We will also accept your donations of gift cards, yarn and fleece fabric. Between March 25th, the Annunciation, and May 31, the Visitation, we again invite the parish to help provide blanket donations for Birthright International. Blankets may be made or purchased. Contact Patricia Cornacchione at (216) 791-7166 or via email at cornacchione@sbcglobal.net for more information. Watch for details later this month in the bulletin!

Catholic Charities Annual Appeal

If you did not receive a letter about the 2015 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal, we invite you to pick up an envelope at the tables near the exits. This annual appeal represents the chance for all Catholics to join with our beloved Pope Francis in opening our hearts to live joyfully and generously. It is the joy of our encounter with Jesus that fills our heart with love for others and changes the course of our lives. Please consider a generous gift and pray for the success of this important Appeal.
