My Dear Parish Family:

During their journey in the RCIA process (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), our candidates, already baptized in a Christian faith, are given the opportunity to renew their personal relationship with the Cross, its purpose and significance. In November, during a day of reflection, they each were handed a cross made simply from two twigs to hold and meditate upon. On a Saturday morning just three weeks ago, while preparing for the Rite of Continuing Conversion, they each held a larger Crucifix, meditating upon the body of Jesus nailed to the Cross. In two weeks, during their retreat, the candidates will experience the Crucifix standing tall in the Sanctuary of the Church and, with the Spirit of Christ in them, give thanks for bringing them full circle to the Eucharistic Table of our Lord.

The many months of discernment and preparation were not without periods of darkness, confusion and questions. Each candidate persevered and opened their hearts and minds to deepening their relationship with Jesus Christ, hearing His words and allowing His Light to diminish and eventually eliminate the darkness and confusion that once prevailed.

Is not this the purpose of the Church's Lenten retreat... for you and I to persevere by intensifying our bond with Christ, recognizing His Light and allowing it to overshadow that particular obstacle that brings darkness into our lives?

This fourth Sunday of Lent is known as "Laetare" Sunday. [Laetore – a Latin word that means "rejoice".] In the midst of our Lenten journey, the Church gives us this time to rejoice as we await the joy that will be ours at Easter. The readings for this week remind us that God is kind, merciful, but He is also just: the faithful are saved – the unfaithful destroyed. Saint Paul's letter vividly speaks about how death overshadows us when we sin. It is God's great love for us that brings us back to life in and through His Son, Jesus Christ – the light of our lives. In the Gospel, Saint John tells us that this can only happen if we choose to accept God's mercy and live in His love.

We are already midway through Lent. Many of us have the best of intentions to do something special during this time, but it doesn't always happen the way we plan. It's not too late to deepen your relationship with Jesus. You may want to emulate our candidates and begin by just tenderly holding a Crucifix in your hand, touch the wood and the corpus of our Lord and visualize His passion... His fate. Imagine what it was like for Him to hang on this cross...all for us. In these last few weeks, if it hasn't already happened, come to know Him as the Light of your life, and come home to the Table of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

In Christ,
Anne DeMarco
