My Dear Parish Family,

Today, the 2nd Sunday of Easter also has the special designation as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was put in place by Pope Saint John Paul II in conjunction with his canonization of St. Faustina, the Apostle of Divine Mercy on April 30, 2000. To be clear, this is not the feast day of Sister Maria Faustina. A saint's feast day would never pre-empt a Sunday in the Easter Season. The special focus of today's celebration is the boundless mercy imparted upon us by God through our risen Savior, Jesus Christ. So, who is Sister Faustina?

She was born Helena Kowalska in a small village west of Lodz, Poland on August 25, 1905. Her family was poor and struggled greatly to endure World War I. Young Helena had only about three years of formal education, so when she eventually professed her vows to the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, she was assigned the most menial of tasks in the kitchen and garden. She embraced these duties with a simple joy that radiated to those she encountered.

Her entire life, in imitation of Christ's, was to be a sacrifice, a life lived for others. At the Divine Lord's request, she willingly offered her personal sufferings in union with Him to atone for the sins of others. In this way, she imitated Our Lord in His passion and resurrection. She received extraordinary revelations or messages from Our Lord Jesus. Jesus asked Sr. Faustina to record these experiences, which she compiled in notebooks. These notebooks are known today as the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska and the words contained within are God's loving message of Divine Mercy. She wrote and suffered in secret, with only her spiritual director and some of her superiors aware that anything special was taking place in her life. After her death from tuberculosis in 1938, even her closest associates were amazed as they began to discover what great sufferings and deep mystical experiences had been given to this Sister of theirs, who had always been so cheerful and humble.

Pope Saint John Paul II made her the "first saint of the new millennium" because she pointed all the faithful to the importance of God's mercy. At the national shrine of Divine Mercy, the following is included in their 3 o'clock prayers. This is a good addition to any prayer list:

Saint Faustina, You told us that your mission would continue after your death and that you would not forget us. Our Lord also granted you a great privilege, telling you to "distribute graces as you will, to who you will, and when you will." Relying on this, we ask your intercession for the graces we need, especially for the intentions just mentioned. Help us, above all, to trust in Jesus as you did and thus to glorify His mercy every moment of our lives. Amen.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

"The remuneration of work is not something that can be left to the laws of the marketplace; nor should it be a decision left to the will of the more powerful. It must be determined in accordance with justice and equity; which means that workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner." – Mater et Magistra, Pope John XXIII

Don't miss Newman Campus Ministry's "Buy Fair Trade for Mother's Day" Sale Sunday, April 26, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall – a special opportunity to practice charity, solidarity, and a preferential option for the poor. At 10:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., there will also be a 15-minute presentation about this year's trips to Nicaragua and the Appalachian Mountains for those of you who would like to learn more about the students' experiences.

Today, over 2 billion people live on less than $2.00 per day, and millions of small-scale producers around the world have been plunged into poverty by international market forces over which they have no control. Pope John Paul II reminds us, "the primary basis of the value of work is man himself," not the items he or she produces.

But how can we be sure that the farmer has been paid a fair wage? That slave labor and child labor have not contributed to the low prices we enjoy? The answer is that unless we know where the coffee, tea, and cocoa come from, we can't be sure.

Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to cover their costs and provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families. By purchasing fairly traded foods and handcrafts, we are making a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that promises to help lift them out of poverty.

We will have purses our students brought back from Nicaragua, Fair Trade chocolate, coffee and tea, and a selection of fairly traded jewelry, zippered bags, and scarves. Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice and Retreat Scholarship Fund.

Novena to Divine Mercy & Divine Mercy Sunday

The Divine Mercy Novena began on Good Friday, April 3rd and concludes today on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12th. Through St. Faustina, our blessed Lord requested that the Sunday after Easter be officially established as the Feast of Mercy:

"On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy" (from the diary of St. Faustina, 699). The Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist are special fountains of mercy which should be received as a condition for obtaining His promise for the Feast of Mercy. Booklets with the Novena are available at the Church entrances.
