My Dear Parish Family:

I would venture to say that many of us, at some point in our earthly journey, have found ourselves lost in a maze brought on by life's circumstances. When we fall into the pit of temptation it often feels impossible to find a way back to the peace that only God can give.

The readings on this fourth week of Easter give us comfort knowing that in Christ, the Good Shepherd, we have a way back to all that is good and holy.

The Gospel and the first reading speak of authority. In the first reading, Saint Peter is speaking to the Sanhedrin, the Jewish leaders, explaining that they, the builders, rejected the very stone that would become the cornerstone, the foundation of God's kingdom. Jesus was the Christ sent by God to save and rule His people; it is in the name of Christ that we have salvation – no other.

This image of the Good Shepherd has been so important to Christians through the centuries. It's interesting to note that in Jesus' day, shepherds often combined their flocks for the night so they could take turns keeping watch over them, while others would sleep. In the morning, each shepherd would call his sheep by their own distinctive voice or an instrument. The sheep recognized their special call and would follow their shepherd who they knew would keep them safe from predators; there is a familiarity between the sheep and the shepherd. In John's Gospel, Jesus is the shepherd that leads His flock along with those who are not of His fold. They, too, He will lead and they will hear His call.

In the first letter of Saint John, we are given a great gift. He clearly tells us that God imparts to you and me His love and it is in His love that we are His children. To know this should give us the affirmation to persevere and follow the Shepherd, the cornerstone of our faith, and live holy lives.

The idea of being one with sheep is countercultural in our world. We can't imagine a predator influencing our thinking – our way of living. But, in fact, there are many predators that cause us to fall, that prevent us from being one body in Christ: pride, individualism, materialism, lack of compassion or concern. The Good Shepherd gave His life to save you and me. If we are truly Christ's disciples then we, too, must give of ourselves for the sake of another. No longer can we run away from or ignore people who need our help whether they are family or stranger. Our service to others is executed in many ways. However and whatever we do in service may it be with the tenderness and dignity that the shepherd gives to his sheep. We all need the Shepherd's tenderness at one time or another. Whenever you feel yourself falling into the darkness of temptation, listen for His call. He knows your name ...all you have to do is turn to Him. He will come and gently lead you to all that is good and holy.

In Christ,

Anne DeMarco

This Week's Schedule

Today, Sunday, April 26th: An invitation for all to visit the Newman Fair Trade Sale in the hall after the Sunday morning Masses. Great opportunity for Mother's Day gifts!

Monday, April 27, 5:45 p.m. Labre Homeless Outreach brings food and friendship to those outside. Contact Labreinfo@case.edu for info.

Tuesday, April 28, 6:15 p.m. Lectio Divina Bible Group in the IFC. Contact Peter Liao at pll21@case.edu for info.

Thursday, April 30, No Newman Night due to final exams.

Saturday, May 2, 1:00-3:00 p.m. in the IFC – Labor Day Weekend Retreat Planning Meeting. If you would be interested in being part of the retreat team for this Ignatian spirituality-based Charis Retreat entitled, "Choosing to be Catholic," please contact Sharon at sxb671@case.edu ASAP and plan to attend this meeting. Sr. Kate Hine and Sharon are looking forward to working with those who have already volunteered! (Sandwich fixings and salad available at 12:30 p.m. for those who would like to grab lunch with us.)

Upcoming Events

Saturday, May 16, Saturday of Service in E. Cleveland. We need two groups of volunteers – one to cook from 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and another to travel to serve the meal from 1:00-3:30 p.m. Note the time change to accommodate Baccalaureate Mass. This is a great way to practice the corporal works of mercy Fr. Joe mentioned in the bulletin last week!

Baccalaureate Mass, 7:00 p.m. Saturday, May 16 at Holy Rosary Church. This special Graduation Weekend event is open to all students receiving degrees this year. Please RSVP to Sharon at sxb671@case.edu so we are sure to have enough parting gifts on hand!

Special Collection for the Office of Catechetical Formation and Education

Each year in the Diocese of Cleveland, a special collection is taken up in all parishes to support the Catechetical Ministries of the Office of Catechetical Formation & Education. Funding from this collection supports Newman Campus Ministry, Adult Faith Formation, Media Literacy, Parish Catechetical Leadership training and Catechist Certification. This year, the collection will be held on the weekend of May 9-10, 2015. A contribution to the Catechetical Ministries is an investment in the faith formation and religious education of every person of every age in the Diocese. Please consider giving a gift to this very special collection.

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance Program

The Diocese encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic grade school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and nonparishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish.

Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school, and who are not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program, are invited to contact Father Joe Previte at the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.

Are You a Registered Holy Rosary Parishioner?

If you are attending Mass regularly at Holy Rosary Church and have not yet registered as a parishioner, we invite you to fill out a registration form – please call the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995. We look forward to officially welcoming you!

Don't forget to support Newman Campus Ministry at Coffee & Donuts!

Newman Campus Ministry's "Buy Fair Trade for Mother's Day" Sale takes place today, Sunday April 26, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

This is a special opportunity to practice charity, solidarity, and a preferential option for the poor. At 10:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. there will also be a 15-minute presentation about this year's trips to Nicaragua and the Appalachian Mountains for those of you who would like to learn more about the students' experiences.

Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice and Retreat Scholarship Fund.

Our Lady of Lourdes Shrine Pasta Dinner

Date: Thursday, April 30th, from 4:30 to 6:45 p.m.
Menu: Pasta, Meatballs, Salad or Apple Sauce, Bread/Butter, Coffee or Tea & Dessert. Tickets: $8.50. All are Welcome!
21281 Chardon Road, Euclid • Info: 216-481-8232

Invitation to the Women of Holy Rosary

All are welcome to join other women of the parish for faith and fellowship on the first Saturday morning of each month. We will continue our discussion of Saint John Paul the Great: His Five Loves by Jason Evert. Please join us in the church on Saturday, May 2nd at 8:10 a.m. for the Rosary, 8:30 a.m. Mass, and following Mass and a quick coffee break, we will meet in the Church Hall for discussion from 9:15 until 10:30 a.m. For more information, call Mora at 216-932-9515. Come for as much time as your schedule permits.

Save the Date: Memorial Mass at Lake View Cemetery on Friday, May 29th at 7:00 p.m.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated by Father Joseph Previte at Lake View Cemetery on Friday, May 29th at 7:00 p.m. Please watch future bulletins for details on the specific location of this year's Mass.

Touch a life... Become a Hospice Volunteer

As a vital part of our team, volunteers come from all walks of life, and have a variety of skills, talents and abilities. Visit patients and families to provide companionship, socialization, and comfort, help with legacy work, transportation, light housework, meal preparation, run errands, make phone calls, help with clerical work, attend health fairs, and more. Volunteer education is held frequently throughout northern Ohio. Teens and most volunteers not having contact with patients take 4 hours of training and patient care volunteers have 16 hours. Visit us at www.hospice.org/volunteer/volunteer-opportunities for more info or call us at 800.707.8922, ext. 6881.

Discernment Prayer Retreat for Women: May 15-17

Encountering God in Prayer:

A Discernment and Service Retreat for Women.

The Dominican Sisters of Peace are sponsoring a Weekend of Prayer, in Blacklick Ohio, for single Catholic women ages 18 to 45 who may be considering religious life or ministry in the Church. Come and learn various ways that Christians have found helpful in deepening their relationship with the Living God in prayer. Register early! Call Sister Pat Dual, O.P., at 614-216-7688 or pdual@oppeace.org.
