My Dear Parish Family:

In the 13th Century, Juliana of Mont Cornillon in Belgium became the catalyst that would bring to fruition the feast we celebrate today, Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. Juliana was orphaned at an early age and educated by the Augustinian Nuns of Mont Cornillon. Eventually Juliana became a religious in the same order. Throughout her youth Juliana had a profound love of the Blessed Sacrament. At the age of 16 years, she experienced a vision that convinced her of the importance of the Eucharist. She envisioned a special feast in Its honor. The vision continued for twenty years and was eventually disclosed to clerics. In 1246 the feast of the Blessed Sacrament was established by Bishop Robert de Thorte of Liege at the suggestion of Sister Juliana. It was eventually extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban in 1264.

Today's scripture readings express our oneness with God. In the first reading, the blood from a sacrificed animal is used to seal the covenant that God made with the Israelites. In the Gospel, Jesus takes a cup of wine and says, "This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many." Jesus knew that obedience to His Father's will would lead Him to death, but a death on behalf of many. Saint Paul tells us in his letter to the Hebrews, that the blood shed by Christ formed a new covenant between God and humanity that "cleanses our consciences from dead works to worship the living God!"

On this Feast of Corpus Christi, we celebrate the life of Christ in us. We are the Body of Christ; we are His Church and He nourishes us through the gift of the Eucharist: His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. Yes, Christ is offering this amazing gift, but He is also inviting us to respond to Him. Blessed Mother Teresa explains that Christ is "hungry for souls," and He is calling us to come to Him and satisfy that hunger. He calls us not to only receive Communion but to enter into communion with Him. When we receive this sacrament, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that we "unite ourselves to Christ, who makes us sharers in his Body and Blood to form a single body" (#1331). As we grow in faith, the more we can acknowledge that God gives us the grace to center on the true presence of His Son in the Eucharist. Then can we go and give witness to what we sincerely believe.

We must not take this Blessed Sacrament for granted. Too many Catholics have become casual in their reception of the Eucharist, whether it be in their manner of dress, excessive talking, ignoring the sacred space of the church, or expressing a gentle bow before the Altar upon which the miracle of the Eucharist takes place. The fact that a church building is just that, a "building," we cannot be remiss that within that dwelling is much, much more. When we enter any Church our first action should be to reverence the Tabernacle where our Lord is kept. Genuflecting before the Tabernacle should be taught to the smallest child.

The Lord chose Juliana to be His voice on earth. Her life was filled with persecutions, but despite the harsh opposition she suffered, Juliana continued to spread Eucharistic devotion with great zeal. Saint Juliana, visionary devotee of the Eucharist, died in Belgium at the age of 65. She was canonized to sainthood by Pope Pius IX in 1869. Her Feast day is April 6th. May we emulate Saint Juliana in her devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. Come, come and adore Him. He waits for each of us with the greatest of love.

"O Sacrament most holy! O sacrament Divine!
All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine."

In Christ,
Anne DeMarco, Pastoral Associate
