My Dear Parish Family:

Of all the Christian virtues that we are called to pursue, humility is the most elusive. The nature of this virtue is such that as soon as one is certain that they have obtained it, they are in reality most distant from it. Today's scriptures, both from the gospel and the Hebrew scriptures, speak very powerfully regarding the value of this virtue in one's relationship with God and with each other.

The book of Sirach is representative of the collective Judaic wisdom writings of the 6th century before Christ. In our first reading we hear, "My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts." You cannot "buy" your friends with gifts but you can endear yourself to them by conducting yourself with humility. Imagine how relationships would change if this principle was applied. Then we hear an exhortation that runs contrary to how we observe that the secular world works. "Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God." To follow this advice means that our ego must shrink at the same rate that our greatness grows. Jesus said of St. John the Baptist that "there is none born of woman greater than he." St. John understood this principle because when he beheld the Lamb of God he said of Jesus, "He must increase and I must decrease." Imagine what our political scene would be if as a candidate rose to higher and higher levels of importance, their humility grew proportionately.

The gospel parable of the seating arrangements at a dinner party contains a different paradox. The scramble for the best seats in the house is really a matter of pride. Having a seat with a good view of the activities is not as important as being viewed occupying a seat of importance! In this jockeying for position of prestige, whether at a dinner party or in the eyes of the community, Jesus tells us that all our efforts will have the exact opposite effect of our intent. "For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The harder you work to get noticed, the more you will be diminished. The greater your effort to remove yourself from the spotlight, the more the light of Christ will shine through you.

There is no greater example of how this paradox works than in the person of our Blessed Mother Mary. In the greatest of all humility she said "YES" to the will of God in her fiat, "I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be done unto me according to your word." God could not have chosen a more humble tabernacle. As I write this the Church celebrates the memorial of the sovereignty of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. There cannot be a more "exalted" title bestowed upon a human person, yet Mary is the most humble of servants.

Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us!

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

118th Feast of the Assumption

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who supported the 118th annual Feast of the Assumption at Holy Rosary. Your prayerful presence at Masses and during the processions on August 15th continued our tradition of honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary who was assumed into heaven by God.

We are extremely grateful for everyone who contributed in so many ways and most importantly prayed with us for another successful parish event. Thank you.

Natural Family Planning

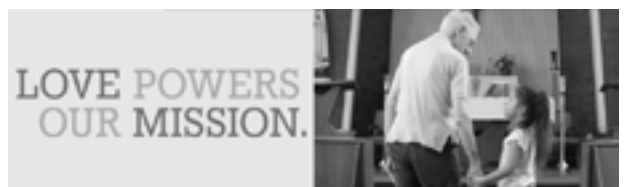

Learn about your faith and a method of family planning that goes beyond the physical. NFP classes start Sunday, September 25th at Holy Rosary. More info and registration online at www.neo-nfp.org. Questions? Call Fred & Margaret at 216-321-4596 or karbo7@yahoo.com.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey of conversion to God and what He intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized, or were baptized in another Christian tradition, baptized Catholic and have not been confirmed or received First Eucharist, can become members of the Church, a people on a pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. Sessions begin on September 13, 2016, Tuesday evening from 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. For more information, please contact Father Joseph Previte or Anne DeMarco, at the Parish Office at 216-421-2995.

2016 Catholic Charities Appeal Update

Good news! The first seven months of this year have seen substantial support for the 2016 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal. As of July 31, 2016, $11,444,667 has been pledged by 49,556 donors. This represents nearly 99% of our $11,500,000 goal. 132 parishes have met or exceeded their parish goals with 35 parishes at 90-99%. We are grateful for the generosity of the parishioners of Holy Rosary who helped our parish meet our goal. Thank you!

Invitation – Women of Holy Rosary

The Women’s Ministry at Holy Rosary is made up of women of all ages and states of life. All women in the parish are welcome to meet the first Saturday morning of each month. We meet in the church at 8:10 a.m. for the Rosary, followed by 8:30 a.m. Mass. After a short break to grab refreshments/coffee, we meet in the church hall until 10:30 a.m. We choose a book that can help us deepen our relationship with God and read and discuss it throughout the year. We will decide which book we will read in the year ahead at the meeting on Saturday, September 3rd, and all are welcome! It’s a small commitment of time and we hope this is the year you’ll join us!

Jubilee Year of Mercy-Cleveland Diocese

The Holy Father has called for all to participate in the Jubilee Year of Mercy by making a pilgrimage to their local Holy Doors, and by engaging in works of mercy. There are two doors designated as Holy Doors in the Cleveland Diocese: at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist downtown and Our Lady of Lourdes National Shrine in Euclid. All are welcome to take a personal pilgrimage and visit these two locations. Please see the literature racks for information and Pilgrimage Passports (which were also mailed to parishioners’ homes). Also, there are many online resources to reflect upon a personal journey during the year, from the Vatican, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the Cleveland Diocese, see: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/yearofmercy.

First Step Programs: Marriage & Divorce

2016 First Step Programs: Continuing education regarding marriage and divorce in the Catholic Church during the Holy Year, the Jubilee of Mercy. This program is offered to help everyone, especially those who have experienced divorce, learn more about Catholic teaching regarding marriage, divorce, and remarriage. Representatives from the Ministry to the Divorced Office of the Department for Marriage and Family Ministry will also be present to explain the resources they offer to the divorced. Everyone is welcome to: deepen knowledge of the Church’s teaching on marriage; hear about the annulment process and how to submit a case; discover a path to healing after divorce in order to strengthen and/or renew a relationship with God and the Church. The schedule for the remaining general meetings in 2016 is Tuesday, September 13, 2016, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Cuyahoga Falls, at 7:00 p.m.; Tuesday, October 18, 2016, at St. Ambrose Parish, Brunswick, at 7:00 p.m. Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process. For more information, check our website at www.dioceseofcleveland.org/tribunal or call the Tribunal: 216-696-6525/800-869-6525, ext. 4000

Retrouvaille

Retrouvaille is a three-month program to help couples struggling in their marriages. It has three phases, starting with a weekend experience in which couples learn to re-establish communication and to gain new insights into themselves as individuals and as a couple. Post sessions are held over a period of 12 weeks to further develop and enhance the techniques learned on the weekend. A support group is also available. September 9-11, 2016 at the Fairfield Inn & Suites, Beachwood, Ohio. Contact Diane and Al Miskinis with questions at 3031@retrouvaille.org or phone 330-665-3506. For more information, go to www.retrouvaille.org.

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

If you have been attending Mass at Holy Rosary but haven’t yet registered, please call the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995. We look forward to officially welcoming you to Holy Rosary! Please plan to join us for our annual complimentary “Welcome” Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, September 4th after the 8:30 a.m. Mass and 11:00 a.m. Mass, or an ice cream social after the 8:00 p.m. Mass. As a parish community we welcome college students and all newcomers to Holy Rosary Parish.
