Dear Parish Family,

We are now past Labor Day and the carefree days of summer are behind us, although we hope that the summer weather will last for a little while longer at least. School has begun and many people are now settling into a new routine and daily schedule of life. As we do so, let us not neglect our most important daily routine – time with the Lord in prayer. As Psalm 95 speaks to us this weekend, we must not harden our hearts when the Lord’s voice calls to us. Authentic prayer begins and continues with acknowledging God’s Presence with us and allowing that Presence to sustain us throughout our day. If we allow this to happen, our whole day becomes a prayer to our loving God.

It is this Presence of Christ with us that allows us to “love our neighbor as ourselves” as St. Paul encourages the Romans and us in his writings. We love others by showing them welcome in our parish, our community, and our lives. We help to share their struggles as best we can and offer whatever assistance we are able and rejoice in their joys and blessings. Love also consists of helping others to achieve conversion, charitably correcting them and showing them mercy as Jesus calls us to do in the Gospel. This is not always an easy thing to do nor readily received by others, but it remains a spiritual work of mercy for which the Lord will grant us the grace to carry out if we remain open to His Presence in our lives.

As we move forward into a new academic year, we welcome back the college students in Newman Catholic Campus Ministry and especially the new students who begin their studies here this year. We encourage and invite you to participate fully in the life of Holy Rosary Parish and please consider this your spiritual home while you are here. Please know of our prayers and support for all of you during this academic year.

As a parish community, we continue to thank the Lord for the many blessings bestowed upon us, particularly another successful Feast of the Assumption. Over the next several months, we will continue to prepare for renovation work to our beautiful church. More immediately, work will continue on the exterior and interior walls. We will provide more detailed information on these renovations and a timetable of work as these plans become finalized.

Let us continue to ask our Blessed Mother for her maternal care and intercession as we move forward in sharing the faith we have received and make more disciples for the Lord.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
