My Dear Parish Family:

A paradox is a statement that, at face value, seems to be contradictory. For example, there is the cliché spoken by the legendary film character of Cosmos, a well-to-do plumber, “You have to spend money to save money.” One has to ponder a paradox to see if there is a hidden, deeper meaning or else dismiss it as nonsense. In today’s Gospel, the evangelist places one paradox after another on the lips of Jesus. The Greeks who were looking to meet Jesus would not have expected the paradoxical riddles Our Lord announced.

When Jesus proclaims, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified,” He is speaking of his imminent, brutal death by crucifixion. This tortuous method of execution devised by the Romans is to be Christ’s glory(?). How nonsensical this must have seemed to his Greek guests and his followers, if they even understood it. Jesus continues to confound those present by offering more seemingly contradictory statements.

Using the analogy of the seed He tells us that the seed must die in order to produce fruit; that one must lose one’s life in order to find it; one must follow Him along his path to Calvary in order to learn how to lead others to Him. This mixing of apparent opposites are the guideposts to showing us how Jesus loved – completely.

Which married or widowed person can deny that the blessed fruit of their marriage is due to the way in which they have learned to die to self and live with their spouse’s best interest in mind? How many of us have spent or are spending a great deal of time trying to find our life’s meaning and purpose? Isn’t it true that when we lose our lives for Christ, hand over the remote control of our lives to the Father, it is then that we find meaning and the true purpose of our lives?

As we come down the home stretch of our Lenten Pilgrimage, we must remain focused on the greatest paradox of human history – The Paschal Mystery of Our Lord where God’s Only Son took on flesh so that He could die; where God’s perfect justice and unbounded mercy intersect in the person of Jesus hung on the beams of the cross. Yes, not only is this the greatest paradox of human history, it is also the greatest sign of God’s unconditional, sacrificial love for you and me. May God grant you the grace to understand the divine wisdom in dying to bear fruit, losing to find life and following Him in order to lead others to Him.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Novena to Divine Mercy & Divine Mercy Sunday

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday, April 3rd and concludes on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12th. Through St. Faustina, our blessed Lord requested that the Sunday after Easter be officially established as the Feast of Mercy:

“On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy” (from the diary of St. Faustina, 699). The Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist are special fountains of mercy which should be received as a condition for obtaining His promise for the Feast of Mercy.

Booklets with the Novena are available in the back of the Church.

Last Chance to Order a HoneyBaked Ham for Easter:
