Mission Appeal Sunday, September 19-20

Father Neil Pezzulo from the Glenmary Home Missioners will visit Holy Rosary for all Masses next weekend, September 19 and 20th, to speak about the missionary work his Society is doing in serving the spiritually and materially poor right here in the U.S. This collection for Glenmary Home Missioners marks the annual Mission Awareness presentation promoted by our diocesan Society for the Propagation of the Faith (Mission Office).

Hundreds of U.S. counties do not have a resident priest, and in many of these counties the Catholic Church is not present. That means no celebration of the Eucharist, no sacraments, not even a parish community to find support. Glenmary Home Missionaries is trying to fill the void – to bring the love of Jesus and His Church to the small towns and rural areas of our nation. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear of the Glenmary apostolate in Appalachia and the rural South and to offer our prayers and financial support for their important ministry in the Church. We ask you in advance to please be generous. Thank you.

Dear Parish Family,

In our Gospel this weekend, Peter reveals who Jesus is: “You are the Christ,” Peter exclaims! This reality is confirmed by our Lord who also explains its deeper meaning – that it would require suffering, death, and ultimately resurrection to new life. It requires for Christ’s followers that they, too, must deny themselves and take up their cross each day to be His disciples.

Are we afraid of the cross? Are we afraid to take it up each day and follow in the footsteps of the Lord? Are we afraid to lose our lives for the sake of Christ and the gospel? On the heels of this Sunday in Ordinary Time we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14th. We celebrate that, by being lifted up, Christ draws all to Himself. It is only through the Cross that Jesus saves us. So, why should we fear? As Isaiah reminds us, “The Lord God is my help; who will prove me wrong?”

It isn’t easy to live our faith in our culture today, but that has been true since the day Peter proclaimed Jesus as the Christ. And we are too well aware that many Christians are currently being persecuted for their faith in certain parts of the world. We must continue to pray for them and provide whatever support we can to end these atrocities. Despite this, we must always keep Peter’s confession in the forefront of our minds and hearts—Jesus is the Christ! By His Cross and Resurrection He has redeemed the world and won the victory over sin and death.

So, then, to keep this foremost in our minds and to take up our cross each day means exactly what St. James explains in his letter – that we must demonstrate our faith from our works. Taking up our cross and losing our lives for the sake of the Gospel means that we do the works of the Lord at all times. Everything we do is God’s work and stems from our faith that we are citizens of heaven, pilgrims on the journey to that Kingdom.

Whether we are doing the work of raising and caring for children and helping them to grow in holiness and knowledge of the Lord; using the gifts and talents given to us by God by studying in our particular fields in school; ministering in the church to the people of God; or simply offering our prayers for all the above and others, we do God’s work. That is our daily cross. That is how we lose our lives for Christ’s sake. It’s not necessarily just doing some special service or volunteer work once in a while, even though that also serves God. It is the whole of our lives. Our faith drives us to do the work of the Lord at all times and in all things. There’s no need to be afraid. After all, the Lord God is our help; who will prove us wrong?

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Holy Rosary Men’s Ministry Invitation

The Holy Rosary Men’s Ministry is a group which meets every third Saturday of the each month (except August) for prayer and to support each other in our faith. We read books for discussion, but it is not a study group. Rather, we hope to provoke conversation on topics which will enrich us and our faith. This year we will read two important documents in the life of the Church today. Pope Francis’ Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) is a call for all to rediscover the Good News of Christ and to share it more effectively with others. Since this year marks the 50th anniversary of the close of the Second Vatican Council, we will read the central document from the council: Lumen Gentium (The Light to the Nations), the council’s constitution on the nature of the Church – basically, what it means to be a Christian in community. We hope that between these two documents we can grow deeper in our faith and better appreciate the heart and mind of the Church.

We invite all men, from college age through retirement, to join us in the church at 8:00 a.m. for the Rosary and the Liturgy of the Hours before going downstairs for coffee and conversation. Our first meeting will be on Saturday, September 19, from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. Evangelii Gaudium is available from multiple sources as well as online at Vatican.va. We will discuss the introduction and chapter one, so if you can, please come prepared; but, if you haven’t read it, you are still welcome to join us. Come and see!
