Dear Parish Family,

“Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?” The Lord asks Peter this question three times after feeding the apostles breakfast when revealing Himself to them after His Resurrection. It is likely not the question Peter was expecting, and especially not several times as he becomes distressed over the Lord’s continuance. After Peter responds “yes” to each round of questioning, Jesus gives him a command to feed and tend His lambs and sheep. Peter will do so, with the help of the Holy Spirit, as have all who have followed in the Petrine ministry since, up to our current Holy Father, and Peter’s current successor, Pope Francis. Pope Francis reminds us that in order to feed and tend the sheep properly, one must “have the smell of the sheep.”

Feeding the sheep requires teaching the true faith to them as the apostles did and for which they were brought before the Sanhedrin. In response, Peter, now fully filled with the Holy Spirit, states that they “must obey God rather than men.” The apostles rejoice in being chastised for speaking in the name of Jesus, but they also know they cannot stop doing so. Neither can we stop doing so either, nor can we choose to obey anyone but God. Like the apostles, and all those that have followed the Lord after them, we are called to proclaim the victory of Christ raised from the dead. We are called to speak the truth about the faith and do so with charity.

We live in a world today where the threat of persecution for the Christian faith is as real as it was in the time of the apostles. We know that some of our fellow Christians have been persecuted for their faith in Christ. We know that our religious freedom is also under attack. This cannot deter us from continuing to live out our faith and boldly proclaiming the saving actions of Jesus Christ. In fact, we are called to be even more diligent and active in our public confession and expression of faith.

This is why it is important to walk the outdoor Stations of the Cross despite the cold temperature. This is why we gather outside to bless the fire in the piazza for Easter Vigil and process behind the newly blessed Paschal Candle into church. This is why it is important for us to continue the tradition of the processions for Our Lady’s Assumption both during the day on August 15 and the evening candlelight procession and prayer to close the Feast. When we do these things, we give public expression of our faith; a faith we are proud to profess!

Jesus asks us the same question He asked Peter: “do you love me more than these?” Hopefully we, too, can say “yes” and, filled with the Holy Spirit, continue to express that reality with the whole of our lives.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
