Dear Parish Family,

As we begin the month of May, the month devoted to our Blessed Mother, Mary, we look forward with great hope to the beginning of Spring weather and time to enjoy the beautiful creation with which God has blessed us. When we see the flowers bloom and trees blossom, we recognize that God is yet again doing something new in our midst. May is the month when our beloved Newman students, who enrich our parish by their presence and participation in parish life, complete their academic year and move back home. For others, this year will finally be the one in which they complete their programs of study and graduate with their respective academic degrees. We pray for them all and wish them well in their futures, confident that, in addition to their academic learning, they have grown in their love for the Lord and His Church through the time spent as part of our Holy Rosary family.

This May is also the month when our two recent seminarians, Deacon John Mulhollan, who has been with us this year, and Deacon Andrew Hoover, who was with us as an intern during the summer of 2014, will be ordained to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. Both have commented positively on their experience here and how the people of Holy Rosary have been instrumental in their formation for priesthood. We are grateful for their response to God's call and continue to pray for them and their classmates as they begin priestly ministry.

[Note: both will be back on Sundays in June to offer a Mass of Thanksgiving here at Holy Rosary and we will announce those dates as soon as they are finalized.]

We also celebrate Mother's Day next Sunday, May 8, with our annual May Crowning of the Blessed Mother, outside in the piazza. In doing so, we give thanks and praise to God for the gift and model of Mary, our Mother and patroness of our parish. She is the first to show us what it means to be a disciple of her Divine Son, Jesus. She is obedient to the Word of God at the Annunciation, caring for the Word-become-Flesh in the stable in Bethlehem at the Nativity, sorrowful for the Son who died for our sins as she stood at the foot of His cross, and joyful at the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost after His glorious Resurrection and Ascension.

All Christian mothers take their cue from Mary – sharing in the joys and sorrows of their children's lives, while loving them unconditionally and showing care and concern for them always, even years beyond childhood. Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, let us pray during this month of May for all the mothers of our parish community, that they will continue to live their vocations in joy and help their children grow in holiness and love of the Lord.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

“The remuneration of work is not something that can be left to the laws of the marketplace; nor should it be a decision left to the will of the more powerful. It must be determined in accordance with justice and equity; which means that workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner.”

– Mater et Magistra, Pope John XXIII

Don't miss Newman Campus Ministry's “Buy Fair Trade for Mother's Day” Sale Sunday, May 1, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall – a special opportunity to practice charity, solidarity, and a preferential option for the poor.

Today, over 2 billion people live on less than $2.00 per day, and millions of small-scale producers around the world have been plunged into poverty by international market forces over which they have no control. Pope John Paul II reminds us, “the primary basis of the value of work is man himself,” not the items produced.

But how can we be sure that the farmer has been paid a fair wage? That slave labor and child labor have not contributed to the low prices we enjoy? Unless we know where the coffee, tea, and cocoa come from, we can't be sure. Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families. By purchasing fairly traded foods and handcrafts, we are making a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that helps lift them out of poverty.

We will have Fair Trade chocolate, coffee and tea. Think ahead to Mother's Day and purchase from our selection of fairly traded jewelry, zippered bags, and scarves. Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice and Retreat Scholarship Fund.

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and nonparishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school, and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program, are invited to contact Father Joe Previte at the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.

May 1 at 11:00 a.m. – Family Mass

We invite families with young children to attend the 11:00 a.m. Mass this Sunday, May 1. The children will be invited to sit in the front of the church during the homily (as has been done in the past on the Epiphany), and older children will serve as lectors. All are welcome.
